

Empowering Youth to End Domestic Violence

BTCYP Leadership Committee

Commitment:

Minimum 20 hours annually, including participating in at least two in-person meetings, attending BTCYP events, and planning and promoting one larger event per calendar year.

Location:

Los Angeles Area

Service Description:

Break the Cycle Young Professionals (BTCYP) Leadership Committee is an auxiliary group that raises friends and funds for Break the Cycle. The Leadership Committee plans and promotes social gatherings to acquaint other young professionals with our work through events like Bingo and an annual benefit for Break the Cycle.

Skills You Will Use:

- Networking
- Organizing

Skills You Will Build:

- Event-planning – Identify venues, negotiate contracts, manage vendors, recruit volunteers and coordinate logistics
- Fundraising – Recruit sponsors and solicit donations
- PR & Marketing – Promote the event, work with media, and raise awareness of a nonprofit and its important programs

How to Get Started:

Contact Christibelle at 310.286.3383, ext. 806 to learn more and get details for our next committee meeting. You can also find out about upcoming BTCYP events on our calendar - www.breakthecycle.org/join-us-la-calendar.html.

Leadership Track:

BTCYP's Leadership Committee acts as a "Board of Directors-in-training" – learn what it takes to be a successful Board member for a nonprofit organization.
