Part-Time Peer Educator

Our Work

Break the Cycle is a culturally affirming, national nonprofit organization whose mission is to inspire and support young people to build healthy relationships and create a culture without abuse. With a dynamic and diverse team that believes all young people deserve to live in a world where they can thrive, our values and work are centered in young people and their lived realities, leadership, vision, and hopes for the future. We aspire to deepen our programs and catalyze social change so that all young people can move through the world with dignity and respect.

Position Description

Break the Cycle seeks a part-time Peer Educator Contractor who shares our goal of centering our work in young people and their lived realities, leadership, and vision. The Peer Educator will engage in peer education and outreach at DC area secondary schools, college campuses, and community-based organizations.

We are looking for an individual who:

- Is committed to and values diverse cultural perspectives;
- Has a passion for engaging young people to create positive social change;
- Recognizes the importance of the voices of youth/clients in all our work; and
- Is hip to youth culture and savvy about grassroots advocacy.

Major Tasks:

- Lead engaging discussions/workshops with young people and maintain good rapport with participants, making conversations relatable and enjoyable.
- Participate in community fairs, conferences, and other youth outreach events to engage and inform the community about teen dating abuse and our work.

Qualifications

- Experience leading and engaging young people ages 12-24;
- Strong verbal and presentation skills;
- A passion for social justice and social change;
- Spanish fluency a plus.

Salary & Benefits

This is a part-time contract position (approximately 10 hours/month at $16/hour).

To apply, please email cover letter and resume to jobs@breakthecycle.org.
